

BROCK MCLEOD MEMORIAL BURSARY

Brock constantly questioned the status quo: he considered everything from all perspectives, was a constant devil's advocate, and cultivated the critical-thinking skills of those around him, leading by example. He was always open to new ideas and perspectives, and loved respectful, intellectual debate. This bursary will be awarded annually to a deserving student who reflects "Brock-worthy" critical-thinking skills and a love of learning.

Conditions

Open to a graduating student from School District No. 79 (Cowichan Valley) proceeding to an accredited post-secondary institution.

- ⊕ Awarded to a student who exhibits critical-thinking skills and a love of learning. This student isn't necessarily the student with the best grades, but they do the assigned reading (and beyond), as well as the research, and ask insightful questions. Please provide an autobiographical essay and two letters of reference to demonstrate this.
- ⊕ The bursary will be given directly to the student upon proof of enrolment at a recognized post-secondary institution.
- ⊕ The award must be used within eighteen months of the recipient being notified of the award.

ONE BURSARY - $500
